

MINAAKSHI MAJUMDAR, a promising classical vocalist was born in a family where music and arts were a part of everyday life. During her formative years, her natural talent was nurtured carefully by her parents. Gifted with immaculate tune, she was groomed in music in very early age by her mother Sandhya Majumdar.

Minaakshi Majumdar is an astonishingly talented vocalist (both classical and semi classical) with an overwhelming gifted melody in her voice.

MINAAKSHI started her initial training of music under the valuable guidance of Sri Sarat Badopadhyay at her early age. Thereafter, she became a disciple of Pt. Nihar Ranjan Bandopadhyay for learning classical. She was receiving precious lessons of Hindustani classical music from well known vocal maestro Pt. Arun Bhaduri, who is attached as a Guru to Sangeet Research Academy, Kolkata. She is a scholar of ITC Sangeet Research Academy SRA under Guru Pandit Ajoy Chakrabarty. Also under the tutelage of acclaimed Thumri singer Vidushi Purnima Chaudhuri, Minaakshi is blossoming as a genuine semi classical artiste.

With the rich and rare training of her Gurus and with her hard work and talent, she has emerged as an excellent singer of khayal and Thumri.

She has performed in many prestigious music conferences and earned a good deal of reputation across the country and adequately awarded with distinction by many elite classical music organization.

She completed her M.A. (1st Class) from Rabindra Bharati University in Music (Vocal Honours). Minaakshi has been an artist of All India Radio. Her promising talent in performing Indian Classical Vocal in Kheyal, Thumri and Dadra will bring her a great success both in India and International arena of Indian Classical Music World.
